

Repairing and installing aluminium windows

Who should do the work ?

- A qualified person should be appointed to arrange the carrying out of the repairing and installation work. Lists of qualified persons who are interested in providing services for carrying out inspection, maintenance and repair of aluminium windows have been uploaded in BD's website for reference.

Technical details to be considered when repairing and installing aluminium windows

When repairing and installing aluminium windows, it is important that the material used shall be of a suitable nature and quality for the purposes for which they are used; adequately prepared; and applied, used or fixed so as to perform adequately the functions for which they are designed.

Click here for more technical guidelines on the repair and installation of aluminium windows.

Important note

It is important that a qualified person should be appointed to arrange the carrying out of the detailed inspection, repair and installation work. Do not carry out any of the above works yourself. Appoint a qualified person immediately once signs of trouble appear.